PCC4U Focus Topic 2: Caring for Australian Indigenous peoples affected by life-limiting illness

From the PCC4U suite of learning resources www.pcc4u.org.au

Learning Outcomes

After completing the relevant sections of the focus topic, students will be able to:

1. Critically reflect on power, privilege and the institutional place of health services and professionals and how these impact on provision of palliative care for Australian Indigenous peoples. [Section 1]
2. Describe traditional kinship systems, and spiritual connections to Country and culture that influence the views that many Australian Indigenous peoples have of health and wellbeing. [Section 2]
3. Identify the key features of the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) that relate to provision of palliative care for Australian Indigenous peoples.[Section 3]
4. Demonstrate an awareness of the historical and ongoing trauma that contributes to the current barriers that prevent Australian Indigenous peoples accessing palliative care services.[Section 4]
5. Demonstrate enhanced capability in communicating with and delivering family-centred care to Australian Indigenous peoples affected by life-limiting illness. [Section 5]
6. Recognise the cultural considerations associated with end-of-life care, grief and bereavement for Australian Indigenous peoples. [Section 6]
